Volunteer confidentiality agreement

In the course of my work with West Africa Aids Foundation (WAAF), I may learn certain facts of a highly confidential nature about individuals who are part of the organization or are receiving support from WAAF. examples of such information include names, medical conditions and treatment, finances, living arrangement, employment status, sexual orientation, and relations with family members. Names of West Africa Aids Foundation members and volunteers are also considered confidential.

Whether confidential information becomes available to me in the normal course of my duties or in any other manner or through previous contact, I agree to exercise all reasonable care and caution so as not to disclose such information to any person not affiliated with the West Africa Aids Foundation and also not authorized by the West Africa Aids Foundation to have such information without the specific consent of the individual to whom such information pertains.

I further agree to abide by the philosophical and policy guidelines of the West Africa Aids Foundation as long as I am a volunteer/member/board member/staff representing West Africa Aids Foundation. Should my association with WAAF cease, I agree to hold in confidence any confidential information I may have in my possession. I am aware that the continuing obligation to respect confidentiality is enforceable by law.

I have read and understand the West Africa Aids foundation policies on confidentiality. I understand that a breach of this agreement could result in the termination of my association with the West Africa Aids Foundation and lead to legal actions against you.
